Facility Riverbanks Zoo & Garden	Position	Dive Technician
Given objectives set by the Director of Facilities Maintenance, participates in daily dives as part of the dive team. Will ensure a safe work environment, while understanding the operation and interpretation of technical dive equipment to include OTS Guardian Full Face Masks, compressors, fill stations, regulators, various communication control systems, etc. Follows USDA, DHEC, OSHA, AZA, etc. standards in all areas. Completes preventative maintenance rounds and diagnostics on dive equipment.  Repairs and maintains Riverbanks dive equipment and facilities to include: guardian full face masks, compressors, fill sitations, regulators, unbilicials, communication boxes, cylinders, etc. Organizes equipment and records for daily dives, works in the role of diver, dive tender, or DPIC (Dive Person in-Charge) for daily and special dives. Comprehends and follows the Riverbanks Dive Safe Practices Manual and contributes to content for revisions/updates.  Maintains a clean and safe work environment, while utilizing a wide array of carpentry, mechanical, plumbing, and dive repair tools and various types of machinery and equipment.  Prepares equipment for and participates in dive emergency exercises in various exhibits.  Assists in training and implementing dive safety policies and procedures. May also assist LSS Technicians with projects, as needed.  Prepares dive equipment maintenance reports, dive recertification schedules, etc.  Effectively interacts and communicates with supervisor/team, employees, volunteers, Riverbanks guests, and various external groups/findividuals (e.g., sales representatives, contractors, etc.). Collaborates with the animal care and maintenance for the safety and welfare of the animal collection.  Must be available for on-callweekeed duty and for emergencies. Works beyond a 40/hour work week, as required. Some travel required to attend meetings, professional development opportunities or conferences (e.g. AALSO and AZA). Other Duties and Responsibilities The ideal candidate	Facility	Riverbanks Zoo & Garden participates in daily dives as part of the dive team. Will ensure a safe work environment, while understanding the operation and interpretation of technical dive equipment to include OTS Guardian Full Face Masks, compressors, fill stations, regulators, various communication control systems, etc. Follows USDA, DHEC, OSHA, AZA, etc. standards in all areas. Completes preventative maintenance rounds and diagnostics on dive equipment. Repairs and maintains Riverbanks dive equipment and facilities to include: guardian full face masks, compressors, fill stations, regulators, umbilicals, communication boxes, cylinders, etc. Organizes equipment and records for daily dives, works in the role of diver, dive tender, or DPIC (Dive Person In-Charge) for daily and special dives. Comprehens and follows the Riverbanks Dive Safe Practices Manual and contributes to content for revisions/updates. Maintains a clean and safe work environment, while utilizing a wide array of carpentry, mechanical, plumbing, and dive repair tools and various types of machinery and equipment. Prepares equipment for and participates in dive emergency exercises in various exhibits. Assists in training and implementing dive safety policies and procedures. May also assist LSS Technicians with projects, as needed. Prepares dive equipment maintenance reports, dive logs, certification status reports, dive schedules, diver recertification schedules, etc. Effectively interacts and communicates with supervisor/team, employees, volunteers, Riverbanks guests, and various external groups/individuals (e.g. sales representatives, contractors, etc.). Collaborates with the animal care and maintenance staff to ensure the integrated delivery of LSS operation/maintenance for the safety and welfare of the animal collection. Must be available for on-call/weekend duty and for emergencies. Works beyond a 40/hour work week, as required. Some travel required to a tend meetings, professional development opportunities or conferences (e.g. AALSO and AZA). Other	Location	Columbia, SC equipment. * Repairs and maintains Riverbanks dive equipment and facilities to include: quardian full face masks, compressors, fill stations, regulators, umbilicals, communication boxes, cylinders, etc. * Organizes equipment and records for daily dives, works in the role of diver, dive tender, or DPIC (Dive Person In-Charge) for daily and special dives. * Comprehends and follows the Riverbanks Dive Safe Practices Manual and contributes to content for revisions/updates. * Maintains a clean and safe work environment, while utilizing a wide array of carpentry, mechanical, plumbing, and dive repair tools and various types of machinery and equipment. * Prepares equipment for and participates in dive emergency exercises in various exhibits. * Assists in training and implementing dive safety policies and procedures. May also assist LSS Technicians with projects, as needed. * Prepares dive equipment maintenance reports, dive logs, certification status reports, dive schedules, diver recertification schedules, etc. * Effectively interacts and communicates with supervisor/team, employees, volunteers, Riverbanks guests, and various external groups/findividuals (e.g. sales represatitives, contractors, etc.). Collaborates with the animal care and maintenance staff to ensure the integrated delivery of LSS operation/maintenance for the safety and welfare of the animal collection. * Must be available for on-call/weekend duty and for emergencies. Must be varied a 40/hour work week, as required. Some travel required to attend meetings, professional development opportunities or conferences (e.g. AALSO and AZA). Other Duties and Responsibilities Knowledge, Skills and Abilities The ideal candidate will be a safety conscious diver who is mechanically inclined. They will also enjoy working within a collaborative environment and be a team player. Must be organized, detail oriented, and have excellent written and verbal communication skills with a very high standard for service. Will be able to handle multiple projects simultaneously	Job Summary	participates in daily dives as part of the dive team. Will ensure a safe work environment, while understanding the operation and interpretation of technical dive equipment to include OTS Guardian Full Face Masks, compressors, fill stations, regulators, various communication control systems, etc. Follows USDA, DHEC, OSHA, AZA,
Knowledge, Skills and Abilities The ideal candidate will be a safety conscious diver who is mechanically inclined. They will also enjoy working within a collaborative environment and be a team player. Must be organized, detail oriented, and have excellent written and verbal communication skills with a very high standard for service. Will be able to handle multiple projects simultaneously and possess thorough knowledge of current computer applications to include MS Office Suite. High school diploma required. Associate's degree in Marine Science, Biological Sciences, or a related field preferred; or any equivalent combination of education, training and experience which provides the required knowledge, skills and abilities. Licenses and Certifications Required Current Divemaster certification from a nationally accredited organization required. Dive instructor certification and experience working in an AZA accredited institution preferred. Will be required to complete Riverbanks training for new divers. Will also train for necessary diving certifications (e.g. Fill Station Operator, Cylinder HAZMAT) and complete fresher training for dive program participants. Must possess or be eligible for a valid SC driver's license. Physical Requirements Must be able to pass a dive medical evaluation and be able to lift and carry up to 70 lbs. repeatedly.	Essential Functions	equipment. • Repairs and maintains Riverbanks dive equipment and facilities to include: guardian full face masks, compressors, fill stations, regulators, umbilicals, communication boxes, cylinders, etc. • Organizes equipment and records for daily dives, works in the role of diver, dive tender, or DPIC (Dive Person In-Charge) for daily and special dives. • Comprehends and follows the Riverbanks Dive Safe Practices Manual and contributes to content for revisions/updates. • Maintains a clean and safe work environment, while utilizing a wide array of carpentry, mechanical, plumbing, and dive repair tools and various types of machinery and equipment. • Prepares equipment for and participates in dive emergency exercises in various exhibits. • Assists in training and implementing dive safety policies and procedures. May also assist LSS Technicians with projects, as needed. • Prepares dive equipment maintenance reports, dive logs, certification status reports, dive schedules, diver recertification schedules, etc. • Effectively interacts and communicates with supervisor/team, employees, volunteers, Riverbanks guests, and various external groups/individuals (e.g. sales representatives, contractors, etc.). Collaborates with the animal care and maintenance staff to ensure the integrated delivery of LSS operation/maintenance for the safety and welfare of the animal collection. • Must be available for on-call/weekend duty and for emergencies. Works beyond a 40/hour work week, as required. Some travel required to attend meetings, professional development opportunities or conferences (e.g.
mechanically inclined. They will also enjoy working within a collaborative environment and be a team player. Must be organized, detail oriented, and have excellent written and verbal communication skills with a very high standard for service. Will be able to handle multiple projects simultaneously and possess thorough knowledge of current computer applications to include MS Office Suite. Education & Experienced Required High school diploma required. Associate's degree in Marine Science, Biological Sciences, or a related field preferred; or any equivalent combination of education, training and experience which provides the required knowledge, skills and abilities. Current Divernaster certification from a nationally accredited organization required. Dive instructor certification and experience working in an AZA accredited institution preferred. Will be required to complete Riverbanks training for new divers. Will also train for necessary diving certifications (e.g. Fill Station Operator, Cylinder HAZMAT) and complete fresher training for dive program participants. Must possess or be eligible for a valid SC driver's license. Physical Requirements Must be able to pass a dive medical evaluation and be able to lift and carry up to 70 lbs. repeatedly.	Other Duties and Responsibilities
Biological Sciences, or a related field preferred; or any equivalent combination of education, training and experience which provides the required knowledge, skills and abilities. Licenses and Certifications Required Current Divemaster certification from a nationally accredited organization required. Dive instructor certification and experience working in an AZA accredited institution preferred. Will be required to complete Riverbanks training for new divers. Will also train for necessary diving certifications (e.g. Fill Station Operator, Cylinder HAZMAT) and complete fresher training for dive program participants. Must possess or be eligible for a valid SC driver's license. Physical Requirements Must be able to pass a dive medical evaluation and be able to lift and carry up to 70 lbs. repeatedly.	Knowledge, Skills and Abilities	mechanically inclined. They will also enjoy working within a collaborative environment and be a team player. Must be organized, detail oriented, and have excellent written and verbal communication skills with a very high standard for service. Will be able to handle multiple projects simultaneously and possess thorough knowledge of organization required. Dive instructor certification and experience working in an AZA accredited institution preferred. Will be required to complete Riverbanks training for new divers. Will also train for necessary diving certifications (e.g. Fill Station Operator, Cylinder HAZMAT) and complete fresher training for dive program participants. Must possess or be eligible for a valid SC driver's license. Physical Requirements Must be able to pass a dive medical evaluation and be able to lift and carry up to 70 lbs. repeatedly.	Education & Experienced Required	Biological Sciences, or a related field preferred; or any equivalent combination of education, training and experience which provides the carry up to 70 lbs. repeatedly.	Licenses and Certifications Required	organization required. Dive instructor certification and experience working in an AZA accredited institution preferred. Will be required to complete Riverbanks training for new divers. Will also train for necessary diving certifications (e.g. Fill Station Operator, Cylinder HAZMAT) and complete fresher training for dive program participants.
Working Conditions	Physical Requirements
	Working Conditions

Salary	$12.62/hour
Respond To	Please submit your application via the Riverbanks Zoo and Garden website: http://www.riverbanks.org/join-our-team/
Closing date	09/18/2019

The message has been sent from 192.168.20.231 (Reserved) at 2019-08-26 06:22:52 on Firefox 68.0 Entry ID: 313