Position Water Quality Leader
Dob Summary	Position	Water Quality Leader
The Water Quality Leader provides leadership for animal life support (ALS) and water quality (IVQ) systems and maintenance in support of SeaWorld San Antonio animal habitats. This role will manage and develop ALS/WQ staff and will oversee departmental budgets, anticipate equipment needs in support of ALS capital improvements and retro-fits, as well as ALS design and planning for capital expansion projects. Essential Functions Other Duties and Responsibilities * Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. * Must have at least 10 years of experience in a squark life support systems in a zoo, aquarium, or oceanarium setting, Marine mammal systems preferred. * Must have 3 years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills * Must have experience utilizing coaching, development, and conflict resolution skills * Must have experience managing projects involving multiple departments and tracking budgets. * Computer skills including Microsoft Office applications. * Must have a working should not have any significant performance deficiencies within a six month period. * Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. * Must be willing to work a flexible schedule to include weekdays, weekends, evenings, overnights and holidays. * Must be willing to comply with and ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standaris and holidays. * Must be willing to comply with and ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standaris and holidays. * Must be willing to comply with an ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standaris and holidays. * Must be will be comply with an ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standaris	Facility	SeaWorld San Antonio
(ALS) and water quality (WO) systems and maintenance in support of SeaWord San Antonio animal habitats. This role will manage and develop ALS/WQ staff and will oversee departmental budgets, anticipate equipment needs in support of ALS capital improvements and retro-fits, as well as ALS design and planning for capital expansion projects. Essential Functions Other Duties and Responsibilities • Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. • Must have at least 10 years of experience in aquateit life support systems in a zoo, aquarium, or oceanarium setting. Marine mammal systems preferred. • Must have 3 years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. • Must have experience utilizing coachining, development, and conflict resolution skills. • Must have a years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. • Must have experience utilizing coachining, development, and conflict resolution skills. • Must have a year for the properties of experience in supervisory for the special properties of experience in supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. • Must have experience unanging projects involving multiple departments of office applications. • Must have applying should not have any significant performance deficiencies within a six month period. • Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Education & Experienced Required Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience	Location	San Antonio, Texas
• Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. • Must have at least 10 years of experience in aquatic life support systems in a zoo, aquarium, or oceanarium setting. Marine mammal systems preferred. • Must have 3 years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. • Must have experience utilizing coaching, development, and conflict resolution skills. • Must have experience managing projects involving multiple departments and tracking budgets. • Computer skills including Microsoft Office applications. • Must have a working knowledge of the English language with excellent verbal, interpersonal, written and communication skills. • Current ambassadors applying should not have any significant performance deficiencies within a six month period. • Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. • Must be willing to work a flexible schedule to include weekdays, weekends, evenings, overnights and holidays. • Must be willing to comply with and ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standards. • Must be able to successfully complete all legal, company and department training requirements to include but not limited to passing required tests and certifications within established timelines. Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Education & Experienced Required Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. Licenses and Certifications Required Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. Working Conditions Salary Commensurate with Experience	Job Summary	(ALS) and water quality (WQ) systems and maintenance in support of SeaWorld San Antonio animal habitats. This role will manage and develop ALS/WQ staff and will oversee departmental budgets, anticipate equipment needs in support of ALS capital improvements and retro-fits, as well as ALS design and planning for capital expansion
experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. • Must have at least 10 years of experience in aquatic life support systems in a zoo, aquarium, or occanarium setting. Marine mammal systems preferred. • Must have 3 years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. • Must have experience utilizing coaching, development, and conflict resolution skills. • Must have experience managing projects involving multiple departments and tracking budgets. • Computer skills including Microsoft Office applications. • Must have a working knowledge of the English language with excellent verbal, interpersonal, written and communication skills. • Current ambassadors applying should not have any significant performance deficiencies within a six month period. • Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. • Must be willing to comply with and lesslive schedule to include weekdays, weekends, evenings, overnights and holidays. • Must be willing to comply with and ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standards. • Must be able to successfully complete all legal, company and department training requirements to include but not limited to passing required tests and certifications within established timelines. Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Education & Experienced Required Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. Licenses and Certifications Required Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. Working Conditions Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonge	Essential Functions
Education & Experienced Required Must have a Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent combination of experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. Licenses and Certifications Required Physical Requirements Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. Working Conditions Salary Commensurate with Experience Respond To careers.seaworldparks.com	Other Duties and Responsibilities	experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. • Must have at least 10 years of experience in aquatic life support systems in a zoo, aquarium, or oceanarium setting. Marine mammal systems preferred. • Must have 3 years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. • Must have experience utilizing coaching, development, and conflict resolution skills. • Must have experience managing projects involving multiple departments and tracking budgets. • Computer skills including Microsoft Office applications. • Must have a working knowledge of the English language with excellent verbal, interpersonal, written and communication skills. • Current ambassadors applying should not have any significant performance deficiencies within a six month period. • Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. • Must be willing to work a flexible schedule to include weekdays, weekends, evenings, overnights and holidays. • Must be willing to comply with and ensure ambassadors comply with all SEA grooming guidelines and employment standards. • Must be able to successfully complete all legal, company and department training requirements to include but not limited to passing required
experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, engineering or water and wastewater treatment. Licenses and Certifications Required Physical Requirements Must be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. Working Conditions Salary Commensurate with Experience Respond To careers.seaworldparks.com	Knowledge, Skills and Abilities
Physical RequirementsMust be able to lift, carry, push, pull up to 50 lbs. and on occasion, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions.Working ConditionsCommensurate with ExperienceSalaryCommensurate with ExperienceRespond Tocareers.seaworldparks.com	Education & Experienced Required	experience and education related to water/environmental sciences, stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme weather conditions. Working Conditions Salary Commensurate with Experience Respond To careers.seaworldparks.com	Licenses and Certifications Required
Salary Commensurate with Experience Respond To careers.seaworldparks.com	Physical Requirements	stand, walk, and work for prolonged periods of time in extreme
Respond To careers.seaworldparks.com	Working Conditions
·	Salary	Commensurate with Experience
Closing date 09/29/2019	Respond To	careers.seaworldparks.com
	Closing date	09/29/2019

The message has been sent from 173.227.210.1 (United States) at 2019-09-18 11:26:02 on Firefox 69.0 Entry ID: 326