

Position	Water Quality Leader
Facility	SeaWorld San Diego
Location	San Diego, CA
Job Summary	The Water Quality Leader at SeaWorld San Diego provides leadership and expertise to ensure park wide compliance with federal and state regulations as it pertains to Animal Life Support Systems and Water Treatment Facilities. This role will facilitate a safe and environmentally efficient operation of the team, with the goal of producing quality water for the life support systems and water treatment facilities at the park. All SeaWorld ambassadors enthusiastically represent our parks by displaying a positive attitude, maintaining a high level of energy and commitment to quality throughout all aspects of the job.
Essential Functions	The Water Quality Leader will manage personnel in all areas of the Water Quality department including divers, automation, pump maintenance and filtration. Will lead capital projects for the Water Quality department and will participate in water quality and/or civil/environmental engineering professional organizations.
Other Duties and Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Direct and oversee the operation and maintenance of the computer controlled automated life support systems and water treatment facilities which include software, hardware, and support equipment. •Oversee the operation of the scuba diver team in maintaining the cleanliness, integrity and appearance of exhibits and holding pools. •Ensure all life support systems and water treatment facilities operate within all environmental and departmental regulations. •Direct and track expenditures throughout the year to maintain a healthy environment for our animal collection. •Set obtainable yet challenging goals both long and short term for our employees and department to ensure that we do not become complacent with our core product or education. Encourage staff to take risks, think outside of their comfort zone and challenge the status quo. •Develop the annual budget based on park necessities and life cycle of equipment, while implementing strategies to control /reduce operating expenses without jeopardizing our animal collection or guest experience. •Lead, support and coordinate area and department short and long term goals, including capital/infrastructure planning and life cycle assessment. •Evaluate and research new technology related to Life Support Systems in line with our vision of being the world wide leader in our field.
Knowledge, Skills and Abilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Must be able to read and comprehend Blueprints and Piping & Instrumentation Diagrams. (P&IDs). •Must have a basic understanding on how to draft a simple habitat flow diagram. •Must possess excellent presentation skills for representing SeaWorld on a local, regional scale. •Must be proficient user of Microsoft Office, including Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook.
Education & Experienced Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Must have at least 7 years of experience in aquatic life support systems in a zoo, aquarium, or oceanarium setting. Marine mammal systems preferred. •Must have 3 years of experience in a supervisory position demonstrating superior leadership and teamwork skills. •Regulatory experience in the state of California is preferred. •Regional Water Quality Control Board Preferred •Experience in establishing and tracking budgets preferred. •Must have experience with new and remodel capital improvements as it relates to Life Support Systems. •Must have experience in managing projects that involves multiple departments. •Must have experience in managing people (coaching and developing, conflict resolution, maintaining employee morale and communicating results.)

Licenses and Certifications Required	•Must have valid California Driver's license and be eligible to obtain a SeaWorld driver's license. •Must have ability to obtain C.P.R./A.E.D. certification and First Aid certification. •Affiliation with water quality and/or civil/environmental professional organizations is highly preferred.
Physical Requirements
Working Conditions
Salary	Commensurate with Experience
Respond To	Apply online at https://seaworldjobs.com . Please email swc.recruitment@seaworld.com with any questions.
Closing date	02/24/2020

The message has been sent from 173.227.210.1 (United States) at 2020-02-14 12:01:08 on Firefox 72.0
Entry ID: 371