

Position	Animal Life Support Systems Manager
Facility	SeaWorld Abu Dhabi
Location	Yas Island, Abu Dhabi. United Arab Emirates
Job Summary	The ALSS Manager is responsible of the smooth and efficient operations of ALSS (Animal Life Support Systems) section in Zoological department; thus directly impacting the Theme Park's operations. This position provides leadership and expertise to ensure park wide compliance with regulations as it pertains to Animal Life Support Systems and Water Treatment Facilities. This position is responsible of the planning and scheduling of the ALSS preventive, corrective and all maintenance services. This position works together with the Animal Habitats Director in planning and managing the section's budget.
Essential Functions	Job scope: - Manages and monitors the operations and maintenance of the automated life support control systems and water treatment facilities, which include software, hardware, and support equipment. - Responsible for the long term planning of ALSS maintenance equipment/facilities, inspection, repair, and installation. - Monitors the trainings and development of all colleagues in the section and ensures that they acquired the required certifications and evaluates their competency level. - Ensures all life support systems and water treatment facilities are operating within all environmental and departmental regulations. • Establishes and implements ALSS SOPs, checklists, forms and other documentations. - Reviews and analyzes the daily reports and paperwork from the team, collates the data and creates the strategic plan for the team for the improvements of their efficiencies. - Communicates to other necessary departments of the ALSS related issues that impacts the park's operations and give a timely update. Identifies areas for improvement and communicates with the team the updates and/or services required. - Supports the Animal Habitats Director with annual budget planning based on park necessities and life cycle of equipment, while implementing strategies to control/reduce operating expenses without jeopardizing the animal collection or guest experience. - Leads, supports and coordinates the short and long-term goals to the team, including capital/infrastructure planning and life cycle assessment. - Evaluates and researches new technology related to Life Support Systems in line with our vision of being the worldwide leader in our field. - Reads and able to comprehend a habitat flow diagram and able to create a draft. - Manages the ALSS colleagues in all areas of the Water Quality department including, Systems Technicians, Pump Mechanics and Filtration Mechanics. - Participates in facility/attraction design review processes in order to communicate operational improvements to designers. - Participates in water quality and/or civil/environmental engineering professional organizations. - Participates in facilities/attractions refurbishment program by developing scope requirements, budget requirements, schedule, insuring all third party inspections are complete working in conjunction with the HSE Department and providing acceptance of the facility/attraction on behalf of Maintenance. - Facilitates the

Section's recruitment process. - Performs other duties assigned by the leadership team.

Other Duties and Responsibilities

n/a

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- 7 years of experience in aquatic life support systems in a zoo, aquarium or oceanarium setting - 3 years of experience in a leadership role - Experience in managing projects that involves multiple departments. - Experience in establishing and tracking budgets - Experience in Marine mammal systems - Excellent English communications skills, verbal/written - Demonstrated decision making and problem solving abilities - Able to read and comprehend Blueprints, Piping, and Instrumentation - Proficient in current computer applications, including MS Office and Computerized Maintenance Management Systems - Maintenance Data Analytical skills

Education & Experienced Required

- Bachelor's Degree in Technical/Mechanical Engineering, Marine Science or equivalent - AFO, C.P.R./A.E.D. and First Aid Certification - Theme Park Maintenance Training which may include any of the following: ASTM, Amusement Industry Maintenance Seminars (AIMS), National Association of Amusement Ride Safety Officials - AFO Instructor Certification or equivalent

Licenses and Certifications Required

Physical Requirements

Working Conditions

Salary

Competitive package on offer

Respond To

Farai Mutusva Talent Acquisition Support Manager Farah Experiences Please send updated CVs to fmutusva@farahexperiences.com

Closing date

04/30/2021

The message has been sent from 83.110.21.8 (United Arab Emirates) at 2021-03-30 06:01:28 on Firefox 87.0
Entry ID: 449